

Subject Recruitment - Internship
Drawn up by The Garrison Group
Application deadline October 12, 2009

INTERN POSITIONS AVAILABLE

The Garrison Group is a leading strategic marketing consulting firm operating in over 10 countries throughout Europe. We provide our local and multinational clients with customized strategic tools for exponential business growth and 'go to market' solutions.

We are currently seeking highly motivated, talented individuals for internship positions at our Budapest headquarters, preferably but not exclusively with a strong knowledge (in addition to English) in any languages of the Central Eastern European region.

The ideal candidate should possess the following personality traits and skills:

- Passionate, curious mindset, openness to the rapidly changing business environment of the region
- Very strong oral and written command of the English language. Students with firm knowledge in further languages spoken in CEE are highly encouraged to apply
- Strong analytical skills, acquaintance and experience with Microsoft Office applications (mainly PowerPoint and Excel)
- Proactive, taking initiative, committed, has the ability to adapt and become a beneficial member of a multicultural team

In return we guarantee:

- Dynamic, multicultural working environment with colleagues from 9 different countries
- Participation in projects with leading brands and companies from the countries in the region and actual contribution to the creation of the brand strategies
- Hard work will be compensated by up-to-date knowledge of diverse industries in the region
- The prospect of full-time employment

Please send photo CVs and a motivation letter to the following email address: recruitment@garrisongroup.eu